

Katzenmeier Weekly Newsletter

November 11-15

Happy Fall!

Language Arts Learning Goals:

Big Idea: "Why do people get involved in their community?"

Amazing Words: community, service, citizen, responsibility, neighborhood, volunteer, respect, vote, honest

*Heart words: how, we, good, it's, as, just, give, those, help, friend, who

*decode words with r- blends as in drop, track, brim, etc

*state the main idea and details of a nonfiction text

*listen to and read nonfiction information

*ask and answer questions about a nonfiction text

*comprehension: take notes from a nonfiction text

*use text features to better understand an informational text

*read simple directions to complete a project

Math Learning Goals:

*math fact fluency

*relate counting to addition

*understand the equal sign

*use patterns to find sums to 10

*relate addition and subtraction

Science/Health Learning Goals:

*honor Veteran's Day

*see patterns in nature as related to seasons

Our Week:

Monday: Library/Gym/Counselor/Homework: read for 20 minutes

Tuesday: Art/ Homework: go for a Fall walk

Wednesday: Art/Homework: read for 20 minutes

Thursday: Music/Homework: math facts

Friday: Music/Homework: Have a good weekend!

Please let me know if you have any time to volunteer to help with a project this week.

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508044EA4AC2AA13-53137439-katzenmeier>

We could use more class snacks, please.

Good news=Everyone got an “A” on the Unit 2 math test!

Things to work on=Your kids talk too much! Please let them know that school is a place of work and study and they need to respect that environment with quiet learning!

