Note from the teacher

Good morning families! Hope you were able to do something fun and relaxing over the beautiful weekend. For me it was all about football, basketball and trunk-or-treating.

The class do a great job with the visiting guest teacher on Friday. They were very respectful and helped teach the teachers a lot about our new math program. Even the presenting teacher said they were a wonderful group of students.

Next week is Bully Prevention week. Mrs. Bobey and our Student Council have planned some very fun spirit days. See the attached flyer for more information.

Thursday is Halloween, one of my favorite holiday. We will not be having treats or dressing up in customs, but we will be having a special guest come in a present on some spooky animals. We are keeping some of this a surprise for the first grade classes...so please no spoilers. We will also be learning about Halloween as a holiday and Day of the Dead, a Mexican day of celebrating those who have passed. We will be looking at the similarities and differences between the two holidays.

Please reach out to me if you have any questions or concerns.
