EARLY GRADUATION APPLICATION

The Early Graduation process requires detailed planning between the student and their counselor, plus permission of the Early Graduation committee. A student desiring to graduate early (at the end of the seventh semester) must complete the following steps:

1. Arrange a conference with your assigned counselor to determine if you have earned enough credits to graduate early.
2. Request early graduation permission via this form.
3. Complete graduation requirements i.e., English, Social Studies, during the seventh semester.
4. Submit a personal letter, attached to this form, clearly stating the reasons that you wish to graduate early and how you will meet the graduation requirements.
5. Make commencement arrangements with Student Services.
6. Return this form with the attached letter to your counselor by:
